Legacy Hospital Partners, Inc. (LHP) Announces New Members of the Management Team

PLANO, Texas— July 27, 2009 – Legacy Hospital Partners, Inc. (LHP) announces the addition of four new members to the management team:

- William J. Hibbitt (59) has joined LHP as EVP and Chief Financial Officer. Hibbitt is a former partner with KPMG LLP and is a licensed CPA in New York and Texas. Hibbitt sat on the board of directors for Triad Hospitals, Inc. where he served as an independent director and audit committee member. He received a BS with honors in Accounting and a JD with honors from the University of Louisville in Louisville, KY. In addition, Hibbit holds a LLM in Taxation from New York University School of Law.
- Lawrence V. Schunder (51) has joined LHP as Chief Information Officer and SVP of Business Processes. Schunder was previously the Chief Operating Officer and President of the Business Process Outsourcing for PHNS Inc., in addition to being an equity owner of the Domestic and overseas Operations of PHNS. His information technology experience has involved a wide variety of communication technologies, such as electronic medical record (EMR) and electronic health record (EHR) implementation and refinement, disaster recovery and protected health information (PHI) compliance measures. Schunder has also managed various aspects of health information management (HIM), revenue cycles and business process automation. He holds a BBA from the University of Texas in Data Processing and Analysis.
- David G. Nosacka (39) has joined LHP as Division Chief Financial Officer and will be over seeing all financial operations for hospitals in LHP's first division. Before joining LHP, Nosacka was Chief Operating and Financial Officer at Creighton University Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska. Prior to his position at Creighton, Nosacka was Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Barberton Citizens Hospital. At Barberton, he held all fiscal responsibilities for the joint venture ownership between Triad Hospitals, Inc. Summa Health System, and Cleveland Clinic. Originally from New Orleans, Nosacka has a Bachelor of Science in Business from the University of New Orleans and Masters in Healthcare Administration from Tulane Medical School.

- Norman Stephens (55) has joined LHP as Chief Executive Officer of Portneuf Medical Center in Pocatello, Idaho. Prior to moving to Idaho, Stephens was the Chief Executive Officer of Mat-Su Regional Medical Center in Palmer, Alaska where he supervised the construction of an award-winning replacement hospital. Stephens has held CEO and other executive positions in Texas, Indiana, Nevada and California. Stephens has a Bachelor of Science in Physical Therapy from Loma Linda University and an MPA in Healthcare Administration from California State University.

LHP Chief Executive Officer Dan Moen commented, “We have been very fortunate at LHP to attract some of the best and brightest in the healthcare industry. Each individual listed above has excelled in his respective area of expertise. As our team comes together while LHP grows, we continue to focus on working with not-for-profit hospitals that are in search of a capital partner to preserve their mission and allow them to grow and succeed.”
